

Category: AGRICULTURE

PROJECT(S) MANAGER Professional Overview A Medical Anthropologist who is driven by a fundamental interest in human health and welfare from a sociocultural perspective. Ms. Kazaryan is prepared to use her strong research and project management skills to develop, implement, evaluate, direct, and monitor public service projects for the protection and security of human subjects. Core Qualifications Project Management, Compliance, Monitoring and Evaluation, Quality Management and Assurance, Program Planning/Development/Implementation (Technical and Non-Technical), Report Writing and Presentation, & Public Speaking Qualitative/Quantitative Mixed Method Research/Analysis/Consultation, Ethnography, Interviews and Interactional Analysis, Literature Review and Content Analysis, Fieldwork, Health, Welfare, Culture, Society, Migration, & Diaspora Education Master of Science & Philosophy, Medical Anthropology 2015 University of Oxford - City, State, UK Scholarship by the Luys Foundation of Armenia Advisor: Elisabeth Hsu, University of Oxford, Medical Anthropology Professor and Fellow of Green Templeton College, Oxford Bachelor of Arts, Anthropology 2012 University of California, Berkeley - City, State, USA Academic Honors in Anthropology, Distinction in General Scholarship Advisor: Aihwa Ong, UC Berkeley Department of Anthropology Reader: Santoukht Mikaelian, UC Berkeley Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures Associate of Arts, Honors General Education 2010 Glendale Community College - City, State, USA Academic and Dean's Honor Roll Advisor: Michael Harnett, GCC Scholars Program Director Experience Project(s) Manager Jan 2015 to Current Company Name - City, State Within the first few weeks, produced the company Disaster Recovery/Business Continuity Plan in coordination with the Pharmacy Manager and the Pharmacist in Charge. Currently manage monitoring and evaluation activities within all pharmacy departments via [review of] internal audits. Ensure compliance with all applicable state and federal standards as outlined by the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy (NABP). Supervise the current Compliance Officer in order to accomplish Verified Internet Pharmacy Practice Sites (VIPPS) accreditation. Deal with all public relations matters. Goal is to create not only an ethical, compliant, and safe working environment, but also ensure the same integrity is represented in the healthcare services provided. Consultant Sep 2015 to Dec 2015 Company Name - City, State Provided methodological training directly to the Monitoring and Evaluation Department. This included lessons in ethnography, interactional analysis, content analysis, grounded theory, open ended interviews, and systematic review of research literature. Actively participated in a number of private consultations, public conferences, and key cooperation workshops with delegates from the World Health Organization (WHO), The World Trade Organization (WTO), The World Bank, The Food and Agriculture Organizations of the United Nations (FAO), and all Eurasian Economic Union (EEU) nation states and their respective ministries from the health and agriculture sectors. Compliance Officer Sep 2012 to Aug 2013 Company Name - City, State Designed a comprehensive policy and procedure company manual for employees, patients, and shareholders. Reviewed patient-pharmacist consultations, internal audits, and dealt with all compliance and ethics related issues. Accomplished accreditation by the Utilization Review Accreditation Commission (URAC) for the company. Built strategic pharmaceutical alliances resulting in signed contracts with major drug manufacturing companies to allow for the dispensing of new and/or limited distribution cancer treatments. Licensed the pharmacy in 24 U.S. states outside of the state of California. Collections Management Assistant Aug 2011 to Jun 2012 Company Name - City, State Served as right hand assistant to the Manager of the Collections Department at UC Berkeley's Museum of Anthropology. Supervised researchers, students, interns, and volunteers regularly as they worked with valuable and fragile artifacts, including human skeletal remains. Organized the collection inventory, conducted database entry for all Oceania artifacts, and reviewed system entries by working interns and volunteers. Recruitment Intern Sep 2010 to Jun 2011 Company Name - City, State Contributed to overall campus recruiting strategy, planned campus events, held public speaking events, assisted in publicizing upcoming events, consulted and maintained the confidentiality of student applicants, answered inquiries, collated reports, filed recruitment information, saved and transferred all documents and correspondence in a sound manner. Leadership Cultural Affairs Representative of Sweden (2015): Model United Nations, UN Armenia Mentoring Associate & Translator (2015): Luys Foundation Headquarters, Armenia Welfare Officer (2014-2015): Oxford University Student Union, University of Oxford Social Media Director (2012-2013): Human Health Project Vice-President (2011-2012): Armenian Students Association, UC Berkeley Vice-President

(2009-2010): Scholars Program, Glendale Community College Volunteer (Annual/Temporary): Armenia Fund, St. Joseph Hospital Maternity Department, Los Feliz Small Animal Hospital Skills Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Office, Outlook, R-Studio Time Management and Strategic Goal Setting Critical Thinking and Problem Solving Interviews, Participant Observation, Surveys, Questionnaires Sociocultural Perceptiveness, Public Speaking, and Recruiting Organized, Determined, Professional, Personable, and Adaptable Languages & Interests Armenian and English - Fluent Reading, Writing, and Speaking Research, Policy, Ethics, Global/Local Health, Bio/Ethnomedicine, Human Rights, Welfare, Culture, Society, Disability, Politics, Philosophy, Advocacy, Access Publications Kazaryan, A. (2015) "Mezabujutyun: The Medicinal Uses of Urine Among Armenians in Diaspora" University of Oxford Kazaryan, A. (2012) "Armenian Americans: Ethnic Invisibility and Double Consciousness in Diaspora" University of California, Berkeley Kazaryan, A. (2010) "Neolithic Çatalhöyük: The Origins of Culture" Glendale Community College, Bay Honors Research Consortium Professional References Elisabeth Hsu , Professor of Medical Anthropology at the University of Oxford: +44.1865.274624, elisabeth.hsu@anthro.ox.ac.uk Avetis Minasyan , CEO and President at TNH Specialty Pharmacy: +1.818.988.1288, avo@tnhpharmacy.com Leslie Freund , Collections Manager at Phoebe A. Hearst Museum of Anthropology: +1.510.642.3682, freund@berkeley.edu Aihwa Ong , Professor of Anthropology at UC Berkeley: +1.510.642.3392, aihwaong@berkeley.edu