

Category: HEALTHCARE

SYSTEM ADMINISTRATOR/ASSISTANT SUPERVISOR Professional Background Over 20 years of experience with a diversified background

Facilitator, contingency planning,

A seasoned Information Technology leader, team player, and technologist with the ability to evaluate problems, develop strategies, and implement Information Technology (IT) solutions. More than 15 years progressive experience developing and implementing logistics and IT system support for aircraft and logistics and healthcare management information, and command and control systems. Particularly adept at handling change, start-up, and problem situations involving business processes and supporting IT systems. Directed the successful implementation of financial, healthcare, logistics management, and technical information systems. Completely knowledgeable and experienced in support planning techniques for weapon, logistics, transportation, security, healthcare and management and critical mission computer systems architectures. Support provided ranges from that of a technical (systems or functional) contributor, program manager, and/or business developer, to consultant, depending on the needs of the program or customer. Skill Highlights Strong medical ethic Problem resolution ability Professional Experience 10/2001 to Current System Administrator/Assistant Supervisor Company Name ■ City , State Edwin Combs, Supervisor (618) 229-2955. Assistant to the AMC/A4 IT Supervisor. A Functional Systems Administrator (FSA) at Scott Air Force Base for AMC/A4 logistics systems. The A4 focal point for integrating USTRANSCOM, AF MAF and AMC logistics, C2 and logistics management IT systems to insure a seamless and user friendly system that support the Mobility Air Forces global reach mobility missions. Primarily insures that basic IT infrastructure, policies and programs support the worldwide enterprise logistics system for delivering and implementing the "Lean Logistics" framework needed to provide support for AF e-log 21 initiatives needed to integrate with DoD, Joint and AF support for the War Fighter. Understand technologies, such as XML, JAVA and interface and communications technologies needed to support AF and AMC efforts in the areas of technical data, logistics management, and business intelligences implementation, distribution and user access at all levels of the mobility enterprise. Additionally, completely understand technologies such as, Transactional Processing Systems , UNIX, Windows, Publish and Subscribe, using Web Services, BI Seamless Data Sharing, Relational Databases, Data Repositories, GUI Tools and Wireless Networks, etc. Provides technical advice on the design, development and sustainment of management and C2 logistics systems. Assists with development of functional guidance for new systems and for major system modifications and system integration needed to support logistics and operations planning, management and execution of business processes needed to support AMC Mobility 21 operational concepts and AF digital technical data in the 21st Century. Ten years specialized experience in diagnostics and troubleshooting of personal computers and LAN (Local Area Network) related components on Windows Vista, XP, and 2000 Networks for up to 750 users. Configures user accounts and security groups in Directory and Resources Administrator (DRA). Lead technician on setting up private network shipped to off-site bases to include Microsoft Server 2003 and Active Directory. Created Standard Operation Procedure (SOP) for VTC and an Operating Instruction (OI) for Communications Security (COMSEC). Coordinates, Schedules and provides training to users on VTC equipment, Tandberg's, VoSIP telephones and all other computer related equipment. The divisions Primary Video Teleconference facilitator for eight years. Maintains one VTC room for unclassified and classified VTC's. Responsible for all coordination and setting up of all VTC's, approximately 30 a month. Primary COMSEC Responsible Officer for the commands VTC. 07/2000 to 01/2002 HealthCare Consultant Company Name Directed and successfully implemented health screenings, to include blood pressures, cholesterol and diabetes testing at Fortune 500 companies such as Daimler Chrysler and Union Pacific Railroad. Database management using a Health Risk Assessment tool. Analyzed the data to provide the companies with detailed metrics on their employee's health assessments. Contacted all the major Health organizations to request informational materials and in addition created fact sheets to be presented to the individuals regarding their results from the screening. Answered general questions and often recommend customers to contact their physician. Provided educational materials for customers and contact information if customers needed physician assistance. 12/1999 to 07/2000 Clinical Research Associate Company Name Responsible for developing, documenting, advocating, and implementing integrated medical system concepts for the BMT division. Program lead for four pharmaceutical companies and hospital clinical trials. Lead on data integration within the BMT division. Developed and maintained a records database with study patients' information. Identified, Reported and provided recommendations to the BMT staff regarding the clinical studies. Responsibilities included patient contact to inform them of procedures and side effects, follow up with a physician. Established effective working relationship with persons from different organizational levels. 12/1997 to 12/1999 Company Name Responsible for developing, documenting, advocating, and implementing integrated medical system concepts for the BMT division. Program lead for four pharmaceutical companies and hospital clinical trials. Lead on data integration within the BMT division. Developed and maintained a records database with study patients' information. Identified, Reported and provided recommendations to the BMT staff regarding the clinical studies. Responsibilities included patient contact to inform them of procedures and side effects, follow up with a physician. Established effective working relationship with persons from different organizational levels. United Healthcare. ROHO Incorporated. Education and Training Masters : Information Management Webster University ■ City , State Information Management Bachelor of Science : Health Education Southern Illinois University ■ City , State Health Education May 2004 Master of Arts : Computer Resource and Information Management Webster University Computer Resource and Information Management Coursework; Program Management' Systems Analysis and Design, Database Management, Security : Business Administration Business Administration 1996 Bachelor of Arts : Community Health Education Southern Illinois University Edwardsville IL Community Health Education 1993 Associate of Science Southwestern Illinois Community College May 2004 Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer MCSE (Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer) Certification Managing and Maintaining a Windows Server 2003 Environment Implementing, Managing, and Maintaining a Windows Server 2003 Network Infrastructure May 2004 Security + Certification Skills Active Directory, Air Force, basic, BI, business processes, Database Management, database, FSA, Functional, GUI, Instruction, JAVA, Local Area Network, LAN, Logistics, Managing, materials, access, Microsoft Certified, Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer, MCSE, Windows, 2000, enterprise, Network, Networks, organizational, policies, Program Management, Relational Databases, Risk Assessment, Standard Operation Procedure, SOP, Supervisor, Systems Analysis and Design, system integration, technician, telephones, troubleshooting, UNIX, Video, Vista, XML